PUBLISH JUNE 10th:

I.

THE PROPHETS OF ISRAEL, AND THEIR PLACE IN HISTORY, TO THE CLOSE OF THE EIGHTH CENTURY B.C. By C. W. ROBERTSON SMITH, M.A., LL.D., author of "The Old Testament in the Jewish Church." 12mo, cloth. Price, $1.75.

"It is not every Professor of Hebrew whose academical lectures would furnish forth such a rich feast as now lies before us. Even the happy few who know something of the facts of the Bible will learn much from the felicitousness of the present exposition. For Mr. Robertson Smith is not only a 'full man,' but has a singular gift of making a hard subject intelligible. . . . He loves to blow away the mists of controversy, and show the truth in all its attractive simplicity."—The Academy.

II.

DEMOSTHENES. By S. H. BUTCHER, Fellow of University College, Oxford. Sixth volume of "Classical Writers," edited by Professor J. R. GREEN. 16mo, cloth. Price, 60 cents.

"This is an admirable little book. Mr. Butcher has brought his finished scholarship to bear on a difficult but most interesting chapter of Greek literary history; . . . the primer is as fresh and attractive in form as it is ripe in learning and thorough in method."—The Academy.

"Classical Writers" now consist of: "Sophocles," by Lewis Campbell; "Euripides," by J. P. Mahaffy; "Vergil," by Professor Nettleship; "Livy," by W. W. Capes; "Demosthenes," by S. H. Butcher; and "Milton," by S. A. Brooke.

III.

HISTORY OF THE WORLD, FROM THE EARLIEST RECORDS TO THE FALL OF THE WESTERN EMPIRE. By PHILIP SMITH, B.A. 3 vols., 8vo, vellum cloth, gilt top. Price, $2 per vol.

▲ new edition of this famous work, in elegant style, and at greatly reduced price.

IV.

GEOGRAPHICAL READER. Compiled and edited by JAMES JOHONNOT, author of "Principles and Practice of Teaching," etc. With illustrations. 12mo, cloth. Price, $1.25.

This volume has been compiled to furnish thought-reading to pupils while engaged upon the study of geography. It consists of selections from well-known travellers and authors.

READY JUNE 13th:

APPLETONS' GENERAL GUIDE TO THE UNITED STATES

AND CANADA. New edition, revised for the present season. In three separate forms: ONE VOLUME COMPLETE, pocket-book form, $2.50; NEW ENGLAND AND MIDDLE STATES AND CANADA. One volume, cloth, $1.25; SOUTHERN AND WESTERN STATES. One volume, cloth, $1.25. With numerous Maps and Illustrations.

NOTES IN SEASON.

HARPER & BROS. will issue shortly Thomas Carlyle's "Reminiscences of My Irish Journey," with a brief preface by J. A. Froude.

HENRY HOLT & Co. issue to-day in their series of the Lives of American Worthies, the "Life of William Penn," by R. J. Burdette, of the Burlington Hawkeye.

ROBERTS BROTHERS have now ready the twelfth and concluding volume of the second series of the No Name novels. It is entitled "Aschenbroedel," and is a record of one summer passed in a Connecticut village; the characters are mainly New Yorkers, but the bright particular star of the story is the heroine, the daughter of a well-to-do farmer in direct descent from the Pilgrims.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS have nearly ready Leslie Stephen's new work, "The Science of Ethics," which will be issued in one volume octavo, uniform with his "History of English Thought in the 18th Century." They have also in active preparation "The Political Conspiracies Preceding the Rebellion," with the true stories of Fort Sumter and Fort Pickens, by Thomas A. Anderson, Lieut.-Col., U. S. A.

ESTES & LAURIAT have just issued a new edition, revised to date, and entirely rewritten under the direction of the author, of Coues' "Check List of North American Birds," also "An English Daisy Miller," a charming novel-ette of the Henry James, Jr., style, by Virginia W. Johnson; "Brought to Bay," by E. R. Roe, a novel of Western life; and "Paddle and Portage," Thomas Sedgwick Steele's book of adventures in the Maine wilderness.

J. B. LIPPINCOTT & Co. have nearly ready a new and enlarged edition of "Memories of Old Friends," to which are added fourteen letters from J. S. Mill, never before published. They also announce "Bimbi," a volume of fairy tales, by Ouida, which were written for the little Prince of Naples. They have just issued, in paper covers, "The Marable Family," by Shaler Hillier; "Star by Star," "In Exile," and "Wild Hyacinth," by Mrs. Randolph. The two latter have been out of print for some time.

P. BLAKISTON, SON & Co., Philadelphia, have just ready a work on the pathology and surgical treatment of "Ovarian and Uterine Tumors," by T. Spencer Wells. They will issue immediately the fourth edition of Tilt's "Change of Life in Health and Disease," a clinical treatise on the diseases of the ganglionic nervous system, incidental to women at the decline of life; also the sixth London edition of Sir Henry Thompson's "Clinical Lectures on Diseases of the Urinary Organs," with eighty engravings on wood.

LEE & SHEPARD will issue in July Dr. Austin's "Life of Longfellow." The author has been gathering material for this work for the past six or eight years. It will be a complete biography from authentic original sources, enriched with reminiscences, not only by the author but by other of Mr. Longfellow's personal friends. Great assistance has been rendered by the poet's life-long intimate friend—Mr. John Owen—who to within a few hours of his decease was preparing and collating invaluable material for this volume.

D. APPLETON & Co. publish to-day a most interesting volume for students of sacred history, entitled "The Prophets of Israel and Their Place in History, to the Close of the Eighth Century B. C.," by Dr. W. Robertson Smith, who, as the Academy says, "has the singular gift of making a hard subject intelligible." They have also ready an admirable essay on "Demosthenes," by S. H. Butcher, which forms the sixth volume of the Classical Writers; a new edition of Philip Smith's "History of the World," and a "Geographical Reader," compiled and edited by James Johnnot. Next week they will have ready new editions of their "Guide to the United States and Canada," and of their "Hand-book of Summer Resorts."

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS issue to-day, in their Epochs of Modern History series, "The Epoch of Reform" (1830-56), by Justin McCarthy, which covers the transition period in English history, during which the representative system in Parliament and the constitutional system in monarchy became settled institutions; a little volume by Prof. C. W. Shields, of Princeton, on "The Order of the Sciences," and "The Faiths of the World," described in our last issue. They announce for immediate publication Mr. W. A. Baillie-Grohman's "Camps in the Rockies," being a narrative of life on the frontier, and sport in the Rocky Mountains, with an account of the cattle ranches of the West, with illustrations, and an original map based on the most recent United States Government survey.

JOURNALISTIC NOTES.

MR. ROBERT S. DAVIS, one of the three editors of Our Continent, has resigned his position on account of ill-health, and the greater part of his interest in the company has been purchased by Judge Tourgée and Dr. Brinton, his associate editors. Mr. Davis' retirement, Judge Tourgée says, will have no effect on the continuance of Our Continent. Messrs. Fords, Howard, & Hulbert have purchased an interest in Our Continent.

THE July Wide Awake will be a brilliant pictorial number, containing no less than eleven full-page illustrations. "The Fairy Flag of Skye," a folk-lore story, is said to be the most beautifully illustrated ballad ever prepared for young readers. The same issue will also contain a programme for an evening's entertainment, comprising pantomimes, representations of statuary, pictures, etc., giving a carpenter's plan for building a portable stage. The article is prepared by G. B. Bartlett.

WEEKLY RECORD OF NEW PUBLICATIONS.

In this list, the titles in bravies are direct transcriptions from books actually received, according to the rule of the American Library Association; those in nonpareil are from the best information available, and will be repeated in bravies when the book is received for registry.

The abbreviations are usually self-explanatory. A colon after initial designates the most usual given name, as: A: Augustus; B: Benjamin; C: Charles; D: David; E: Edward; F: Frederic; G: George; H: Henry; I: Isaac; J: John; L: Louis; N: Nicholas; P: Peter; R: Richard; S: Samuel; T: Thomas; W: William.

Sizes are designated as follows: F. (folio: over 30 centimeters high); Q. (4to: under 30 cm.); O. (8vo: 25 cm.); D. (16mo: 20 cm.); S. (16mo: 17½ cm.); T. (24mo: 15 cm.); Tt. (32mo: 12½ cm.); Ft. (48mo: 10 cm.). Sq., obl., nar., designate square, oblong, narrow books of these heights. Where figure instead of letter symbols are used, the record is from publisher's designation, and not measurement.

Imported books are marked with an asterisk; authors' and subscription books, or books published at net prices, with two asterisks; educational books published at "wholesale" prices, with a dagger.

Ashhurst, J., jr., M.D., ed. International encyclopædia of surgery: systematic treatise on the theory and practice of surgery, by authors of various nations. In 6 v. V. 1. N. Y., W. Wood & Co., 1882. 717 p. il. 8° cl., $6; leath., $7; hf. mor., $8.

Bainbridge, W. F. Along the lines at the front: a general survey of Baptist home and foreign missions. Phil., Amer. Baptist Pub. Soc., [1882]. 320 p. maps and il. D. cl., $1.50.

By the author of "Around-the-world tour of Christian missions." Mr. Bainbridge takes in the whole subject of missions, both home and foreign. His chapters are headed: Baptist resources for world evangelization; The American Baptist Home Mission Society; The American Baptist Publication Society; The American Baptist Mission Union; Our educational institutions and their bearing upon missions; The missionary spirit in the churches; Baptist missions of Great Britain and Europe, Japan, China, Siam, Burma, Assam, India, Ogonia, Africa, Northern Europe, Southern Europe, West Indies, Brazil and Mexico, retrospective and prospective. Index.

Bhagavadgītā (The) with the Sanatsugātīya and the Anugītī; tr. by Kāśināth Trimbak Telang. N. Y., Macmillan, 1882. 446 p. 8°. (Sacred books of the East, ed. by F. Max Müller, v. 8.) cl., $2.75.

Blake, Mary E. ["M. E. B."] Poems. Bost., Houghton, Mifflin & Co., 1882. 2+208 p. D. cl., $1.25.

"Mrs. Mary E. Blake's 'Poems' are the expression, in graceful measure and melodious rhythm, of the true womanly perception of spiritual beauty in men and women and little children, in the changes of the seasons, in the glowing sunset, in heroic deeds, in the sacred halo of affliction, in the hopes and fears that attend the soldier's mission, in the grateful memory of charity in word or act."—Boston Traveller.

Boericke and Tafel, comp. The American homœopathic pharmacopœia. N. Y. & Phil., Boericke & Tafel, 1882. 4+524 p. O. cl., $3.50.

"For many years the want of a practical, complete and reliable homœopathic pharmacopœia has been felt in this country; especially one that would include the many new remedies lately come into use. Good pharmacopœias have been issued, that would only require to be brought up to date to make them authoritative. The most recent and best one—Dr. William Schwabe's 'Polyglotta'—failed to give descriptions of plants and minerals, and the mode of preparation of chemicals, necessitating works of reference, of which the latest and most correct issues are not always available, besides consuming valuable time of the busy practitioner. We have endeavored to remedy these defects in the present edition."—Preface.

Bramwell, Byron. Diseases of the spinal cord. N. Y., W. Wood & Co., 1882. 23+300 p. col. il., 8° cl., $5.

Cheever, Rev. H. T. Autobiography and memoirs of Ichabod Washburn: showing how a large business was developed and large wealth acquired for the uses of benevolence. N. Y., American Tract Soc., [1882]. 14+222 p. S. cl., 80 c.

The true story of an energetic American, a successful business man, and a Christian philanthropist.

Collyer, Rob. Nature and life: sermons. New ed. Bost., Lee & Shepard, 1882. 360 p. 16° cl., $1.50.

Criswell, R. W. The new Shakespeare, and other travesties. N. Y., American News Co., 1882. 12° cl., $1; pap., 50 c.

Defoe, Daniel. Life and adventures of Robinson Crusoe; with biographical memoir, illustrative notes and 8 etchings. N. Y., Scribner & Welford, 1882. 2 v., 392; 384 p. 12°. (Old English romances.) cl., $86.

De Forest, J. W. The oddest of courtships; or, the bloody chasm: a novel. New cheap ed. of "The bloody chasm." N. Y., Appleton, 1882. 12° pap., 50 c.

De Kay, C. The vision of Esther: a sequel to "The vision of Nimrod." [Poem.] N. Y., Appleton, 1882. 12° cl., $1.50.

Di Cesnola, L. P., ed. The Metropolitan Museum of Art; il. by G. Gibson. N. Y., Appleton, 1882. 32 p. F. pap., 50 c.

A description, with views of the exterior and interior, of the N. Y. Metropolitan Museum of art; also illustrations of its numerous groups of art-objects, with descriptions.

Dicey, E. Victor Emmanuel. N. Y., G. P. Putnam's Sons, 1882. 5-336 p. por. S. (New Plutarch.) cl., $1.

This life of Victor Emmanuel, the first king of Italy, also includes the history of the Italian struggle for liberty, and the final unification of Italy; Cavour, Garibaldi and Mazzini, prominent figures of this epoch, are treated fully in connection with the events of the period covered, from March 14, 1820, when King Victor Emmanuel was born, till his death, on the 9th of January, 1878.

Dickens, [C. Jr.] Dictionary of London: an unconventional hand-book. (4th year.) N. Y., Macmillan, 1882. 320 p. maps, flex. cl., $50 c.

Farjeon, B. L. Bread-and-cheese and kisses; [also] Only the burden of others. N. Y., J. S. Ogilvie & Co., 1882. 27 p. Q. (People's lib., no. 271.) pap., 10 c.

Fothergill, Jessie. For his sake. N. Y., J. S. Ogilvie & Co., 1882. 30 p. Q. (People's lib., no. 274.) pap., 10 c.

Fuller, E. Forever and a day: a novel. Phil., J. B. Lippincott & Co., 1882. 306 p. D. cl., $1.50.

The author of this book is an undergraduate of Harvard, in the Senior class; the scene is laid in a small town near Boston; the chief character is an eminently respectable man who commits a forgery, and makes his partner the scapegoat of his crimes; he also robs his nephew—a high-minded young man, who is entrapped into marrying his cousin, who knows of her father's duplicity.

Fuller, Horace W. Noted French trials: impostors and adventurers. Bost., Soule & Bugbee, 1882. 264 p. D. cl. or cartridge pap. bds., $1.

Contains 8 very curious and interesting trials of impostors and adventurers, selected from the French reports by Mr. Horace W. Fuller, of the Suffolk bar; told in a popular style for readers who delight in the works of Gaboriau and Boisgobey. Named: The false Martin Guerre; and woman without a name; Collet; The false Dauphins; The beggar of Vernon; The false Caille; Cartouche; Mandrin. The binding in cartridge paper boards of this volume is something quite new and attractive, and seemingly quite substantial.

Gaskell, Mrs. E. C. The grey woman, and other tales. N. Y., G: Munro, 1882. 22 p. Q. (Seaside lib., no. 1281.) pap., 10 c.

Harvey, Minnie L. Louisa Van Benthusen: a novel. Phil., W. H. Thompson, 1882. 12° cl., $1.50.

Heyse, Paul. Barbarossa, and other tales. N. Y., G: Munro, 1882. 21 p. Q. (Seaside lib., no. 1291.) pap., 10 c.

Higginson, T. Wentworth. Atlantic essays. [New ed.] Bost., Lee & Shepard, 1882. 348 p. 16° cl., $1.50.

Higginson, T. Wentworth. Oldport days. New ed. Bost., Lee & Shepard, 1882. 268 p. 16° cl., $1.50.

Hill, Rev. J. C. The children's sermon: with a selection of five minutes' sermons to children; for pastors, Sunday-school libraries and home reading. Phil., Presb. Bd. of Pub., 1882. 91 p. S. cl., 50 c.

16 short sermons for children, with an account of the children's sermon—Who started it? What is it? How is it done? etc.

Hodgson, W. B. Errors in the use of English. Am. rev. ed. N. Y., Appleton, 1882. 6+246 p. D. cl., $1.50.

This interesting and instructive manual by the late professor of political economy in the University of Edinburgh, is founded on actual blunders, gathered by the author in a course of desultory reading, extending over the past thirty years. The book was so well received in England, that it passed into a second edition within a few months. It is divided into 4 pts.: 1, Vocabulary, under which heading are ranged, in alphabetical order, spurious words, and words used with meanings other than their own. 2, Accidence, dealing with the parts of speech. 3, Syntax, and 4, Rhetoric. In all these divisions the rules are illustrated by a perfect wealth of quotations, both of correct and incorrect usage, from accredited sources. Index. The London Academy says: "This posthumous work of Dr. Hodgson deserves a hearty welcome, for it is sure to do good service for the object it has in view—improved accuracy in the use of the English language."

Holland, J. G. Miss Gilbert's career: an American story. [New ed.] N. Y., C: Scribner's Sons, 1882. 6+405 p. S. cl., $1.25.

Holland, J. G. Nicholas Minturn: a study in a story. [New ed.] N. Y., C: Scribner's Sons, 1882. 8+431 p. S. cl., $1.25.

Holst, H. von. John C. Calhoun. Bost., Houghton, Mifflin & Co., 1882. 6+356 p. D. (American statesmen ser.) cl., $1.25.

"Dr. von Holst represents Calhoun as being a more important and more interesting statesman than Webster or Clay—to say nothing of others—for the reason that he was, in the most explicit sense of the term, the representative of an idea—the slavery idea. It is from this standpoint that Dr. von Holst discusses Calhoun's character and career, and although he has not the slightest sympathy with the slave system or the politics of its supporters, he contrives to present a review of the slavery question that takes into very serious consideration a good many matters that American political writers of the present day find it convenient to ignore or forget. Dr. von Holst's discussion of the slavery question, and especially of Calhoun's connection with it, seems to us to be entirely admirable. It is the analysis of a political student rather than of a partisan."—Phila. Telegram.

Houghton, G. Niagara, and other poems. Bost., Houghton, Mifflin & Co., 1882. 3-130 p. T. cl., $1.

"Mr. Houghton writes poetry with considerable facility and not a little effect. He has a good ear for rhyme, an easy mastery of language, a cultivated appreciation of poetic possibilities and rather more than an average capacity for invention. His verses are about up to the standard of those which find a place in our leading magazines, but their impulse is imitative rather than individual."—Phila. North American.

Ingals, E. Fletcher, M. D. Lectures on the diagnosis and treatment of diseases of the chest, throat and nasal cavities. N. Y., W: Wood & Co., 1881. 8+437 p. 8° cl., $1.

Jackson, Lady Catherine Charlotte. The old régime in France: the court, salons and theatres. In 2 pts., pt. 1. N. Y., G: Munro, 1882. 33 p. Q. (Seaside lib., no. 1270.) pap., 20 c.

Kenny, Minnie E. Gypsy. N. Y., G: P. Putnam's Sons, 1882. 4+313 p. sq. S. (Knickerbocker novels.) cl., $1; pap., 60 c.

An English story of home life; "Gypsy" is the central figure of a group of some half dozen or more brothers and sisters; her wild ways have a certain charm, which are patent to all but a somewhat stony-hearted father; the details of a love story mingle with much bright conversation, picnics, tableaux, etc.

Laffan, May. Flitters, Tatters, and the Counsellor, and other sketches, by the author of "Hogan, M. P." etc. [Anon.] N. Y., Macmillan, 1882. 340 p. 12° cl., $1.

Livius, Patavinus, Titus. Books II., III.; ed., with introduction and notes, by Rev. H. M. Stephenson. N. Y., Macmillan, 1882. 28+299 p. 16° cl., net, $1.10.

Molière, J. B. Poqueilin. Le Misanthrope: comédie en cinq acts; with life of Molière, appreciation of the play, arguments, notes on grammar, archaisms, etc., systematically arranged by G. Eugène Fasnacht. N. Y., Macmillan, 1882. 116 p. 16° flex. cl., net, 30 c.

Morley, J., ed. English men of letters: 1, John Milton, by Mark Pattison; 2, Alexander Pope, by Leslie Stephen; 3, William Cowper, by Goldwin Smith. N. Y., Harper, 1882. 78 p. Q. (Harper's Franklin sq. lib., no. 254.) pap., 20 c.

Morris, G. S. Kant's critique of pure reason: a critical exposition. Chic., S. C. Griggs & Co., 1882. 16+272 p. S. (German philosophical classics, ed. by G. S. Morris.) cl., $1.25.

Each v. of this series will be devoted to the critical exposition of some one masterpiece belonging to the history of German philosophy. The aim in each case will be to furnish a clear and attractive statement of the special substance and purport of the original author's argument, to interpret and elucidate the same by reference to the historic and acknowledged results of philosophic inquiry, to give an independent estimate of merits and deficiencies, and especially to show, as occasion may require, in what way German thought contains the natural complement, or the much-needed corrective, of British speculation. It is intended that the series, when completed, shall consist of ten or twelve volumes, founded on the works of Leibnitz, Kant, Fichte, Schelling and Hegel. This, the first one issued, is by the editor of the series.

N. Y., E. P. Dutton & Co., [1882]. 10+324 p. il. D. cl., $1.50.

Phillips, C. D. F. Materia medica and therapeutics: inorganic substances; ed. and adapted to the U. S. Pharmacopœia by Laurence Johnson. V. 1. N. Y., W. Wood & Co., 1882. 12+298 p. 8°. (Wood's library of standard medical authors.) cl., subs., $1.25.

Revisers and the Greek text of the New Testament; by two members of the New Testament Company. N. Y., Macmillan, 1882. 79 p. 8°. pap., 90 c.

Ribot, Théodule. Diseases of memory: an essay in the positive psychology; from the French by W. Huntington Smith. N. Y., Appleton, 1882. 209 p. D. (International sci. ser., no. 41.) cl., $1.50.

"My purpose in this work is to provide a psychological monograph upon the diseases of memory, and, so far as the present state of our knowledge will permit, to derive from them certain deductions. The phenomena of memory have often been investigated, but never from a pathological standpoint. It has seemed to me that it might be profitable to consider the subject in this form. I have cited many illustrations; this method, not in keeping with a purely literary study, is alone adapted to instruction."—Author's Preface.

Roe, E. P. Barriers burned away. New rev. ed. N. Y., Dodd, Mead & Co., 1882. 73 p. Q., pap., 20 c.

Rosenthal, L. America and France: the influence of the United States on France in the 18th century. N. Y., H. Holt & Co., 1882. 6+302 p. D. cl., $1.75.

"The purpose of this work," the author tells us, is "to consider the relations of France and the United States between the years 1776 and 1794, and to determine what influence the young republic exerted during those years, first on the subjects of the old monarchy, then on the citizens of a new commonwealth." He traces these influences in detail, showing that our revolution was a proximate cause of the French revolution, as the men and doctrines of America at this period had a powerful influence upon the French. He shows also that during the progress of the revolution American influence was still traceable, but that at its climax it was almost entirely absent. Index.

Ryder, H. I. D. Catholic controversy: a reply to Dr. Littledale's "Plain reasons." 1st Amer. ed., with appendix. N. Y., Catholic Pub. Soc. Co., 1882. 16+288 p. S. cl., 60c.; pap., 30.

This is a reply to Dr. Littledale's "Plain reasons against joining the Church of Rome." It is divided into 2 parts. Pt. 1 aims to vindicate the privilege of St. Peter and his successors in the Roman See, both as regards teaching and government. Pt. 2 meets the various charges brought against the Catholic Church in communion with the See of Peter.

Sacred books of China: the texts of Confucianism; tr. by Ja. Legge. Pt. 2: The Yi-King. N. Y., Macmillan, 1882. 21+448 p. 8°. (Sacred books of the East, ed. by F. Max Müller, v. 16.) cl., $2.75.

Satapatha-Brahmana, according to the text of the Mādhyandina school; tr. by Julius Eggeling. Pts. 1, 2. N. Y., Macmillan, 1882. 48+456 p. 8°. (Sacred books of the East, ed. by F. Max Müller, v. 12.) cl., $3.25.

Stanley, Arthur Penrhyn, D.D. Historical memorials of Westminster Abbey. 5th ed., with the author's final revisions. N. Y., Scribner & Welford, 1882. 43+540 p. il. 8°. cl., $6.

Sterne, Laurence. A sentimental journey through France and Italy; [also] A tale of a tub, by Jonathan Swift, with 5 etchings and por. by Hedouin. N. Y., Scribner &

Welford, 1882. 394 p. 12°. (Old English 'romances.) cl., $3.

Sturgis, Julian. Dick's wandering. Bost., Houghton, Mifflin & Co., 1882. 2+397 p. D. cl., $1.50.

"Dick's wandering" may be more intelligently termed, for the reader who desires to learn the scope of the story, as Dick's eccentricities, in other words, his deviations from the conventional ideas of the English society in which he lives. He is generally, though not always, right in his independence of motive and aims: and the reader will be drawn to him because of his frank and manly character. The interest of the book centres in the development of this. Its scene is partly in England, partly in the field of Eastern travel, and in the later portion of the story it is transferred to our own country. The heroine is an American girl, and is very agreeably delineated. The book has a pleasing variety of incident, and it never offends good taste in any respect."—Boston Gazette.

Swift, Jonathan. Travels to several remote nations of the world by Lemuel Gulliver; with 5 etchings and por. by Lanzani. N. Y., Scribner & Welford, 1882. 363 p. 12°. (Old English romances.) cl., $3.

Three in Norway, by Two of them: with a map and numerous il. engraved on wood by G. H. Ford, from original sketches. Phil., Porter & Coates, [1882]. 16+341 p. D. cl., $1.75.

"For persons desirous of trying a holiday trip in Scandinavia, for a change, 'Three in Norway,' with its host of illustrations, its amusing letterpress and valuable information, can be safely recommended as a travelling companion. The three of them were bent chiefly on sport, so they set sail for Christiania and went up the country armed with fishing-tackle, were pestered with mosquitoes, annoyed by rain, lay awake to admire a Norwegian midnight, got upset from their boat, enjoyed themselves generally, and returned home again. Perhaps the best part about the book is the wit and humor scattered up and down its pages broadcast, with lavish and unstinting hand. There is not a dull page to be found in it."—London Daily Telegraph.

Thomas, Mrs. Annie [now Mrs. Pender Cudlip]. Our set: a collection of stories. N. Y., Harper, 1882. 52 p. Q. (Harper's Franklin sq. lib., no. 253.) pap., 15 c.

Underwood, Francis H. Henry Wadsworth Longfellow: a biographical sketch. Bost., Ja. R. Osgood & Co., 1882. 14+355 p. por. and il. D. cl., $1.50.

"This life of Longfellow is both chronicle and analysis; it rapidly recites the facts of his career, and, with a light touch and admirable intuition, traces the development of his character and genius. The two strands of narrative and interpretation are twisted with deft and adroit skill, so that the biography is easy to read, and, possessing no element of tediousness, leaves no sense of fatigue. . . . Mr. Underwood has presented a brief critical judgment of each of the chief works of Longfellow, viewing them as the successive denotements of the 'divinely gifted' and constantly expanding nature that produced them. . . . The volume contains thirty-nine chapters or sections, and a copious appendix of six parts, closing with a bibliography of Longfellow [from the Literary World], and it is embellished with twelve illustrations, inclusive of the house in which he was born and that in which he lived and died. A future biography, authorized by the Longfellow family, will, of course, present the illustrious subject with more ample minuteness, embodying his correspondence, and giving, as a background, the picture of his times. Meanwhile the thoughtful reader of Mr. Underwood's sketch will possess the essential facts that illustrate the lovely and gracious life of the first and greatest of American poets. . . . The narrative is opened with a sketch, at once accurate and concise, of the state of literature in America at the time when Longfellow began to write."—New York Tribune.

NOTES ON AUTHORS.

THE Emperor of Brazil has nearly completed his book of travel. It will be published in French, under the title of "Impressions de Voyage."

MR. ERIC ROBERTSON is writing for Cassell, Petter, Galpin & Co. a work on "English Poetesses." It will probably appear in the Christmas season.

RICHARD HENRY STODDARD is preparing a series of English and American poets—American for the English market, and English for the American market.

THE papers of the late Lydia Maria Child are being revised and prepared for the press by Mrs. S. E. Sewall and Mrs. S. M. Parsons, who is a niece of Mrs. Child.

REV. O. B. FROTHINGHAM has completed his biography of the late George Ripley, and the work is now passing through the press of Houghton, Mifflin & Co.

MR. SWINBURNE's new volume, "Tristram of Lyonesse, and other Poems," is in the press, and will be published very shortly. It contains, besides the main poem, a number of lyrics and sonnets.

MR. T. J. WISE, of the Browning Society, has undertaken the compilation of a "Browning Concordance" after the plan of Mr. D. Barron Brightwell's excellent "Tennyson Concordance."

THE Boston Transcript is our authority for saying that the author of "A Reverend Idol," who is now in Boston, is quite distressed at the report that Rev. Phillips Brooks is the original of the hero in this new novel. The "Reverend Idol" was a creation of the writer's, and had no living prototype. The main point of the book (the author complains) has not yet been touched upon by any reviewer or critic—that is anti-woman suffrage. To the above statement it may be added that Miss Sallie McLean, the author of "Cape Cod Folks," denied over her own signature the authorship of "A Reverend Idol," and also that it is asserted by those who should know, that Mrs. Austin is not the author, while it is as positively asserted that Miss L. G. Noble, of Wilbraham, Mass., is the author of this much talked-of book.

The Publishers' Weekly.

JUNE 10, 1882.

PUBLISHERS are requested to furnish title-page proofs and advance information of books forthcoming, both for entry in the lists and for descriptive mention. An early copy of each book published should be forwarded, to insure correctness in the final entry.

The trade are invited to send "Communications" to the editor on any topic of interest to the trade, and as to which an interchange of opinion is desirable. Also, matter for "Notes and Queries," gratefully received.

In case of business changes, notification or card should be immediately sent to this office for entry under "Business Notes." New catalogues issued will also be mentioned when forwarded.

"Every man is a debtor to his profession, from the which, as men do of course seek to receive countenance and profit, so ought they of duty to endeavor themselves by way of amends to be a help thereunto."—LORD BACON.

"WHAT are we going to do about it?" asks "Equanimity," in another column. If "Equanimity" wants equity, the remedy is: Plenty of money and time and, above all—equanimity. For any one possessed of these essentials it actually becomes a duty to fight autocratic or incompetent officials to the bitter end. For mortals in ordinary circumstances there is only one escape: Go to the proper place! Don't expose yourself unnecessarily in order not to get sick, but, when you are sick, go to the doctor. You go to the hatter for a hat, to the baker for bread, to the druggist for drugs—and why not to the bookseller for books? The importation of books is a legitimate business, which, particularly in this country, is conducted by a class of competent and honorable men. These importers are prepared to give you all desired information on books from abroad, to attend to your foreign correspondence, to order your books, and pass them through the Custom-house without trouble or tribulation to you. They are entitled to your patronage, and to their just commissions, as is your broker to his brokerage.

THE AMERICAN BAPTIST PUBLICATION SOCIETY.

At the fifty-eighth anniversary of this society it was reported that last year it employed 125 Bible colporteurs and Sunday-school missionaries and agents, who delivered 11,289 sermons and addresses, and organized 422 Sunday-schools. These agents distributed 343,177 pages of tracts; they sold 38,671 books, and gave 4656 to those unable to purchase them. An important work has also been carried on in Germany. The receipts last year of the Business Department were $345,632.55, and of the Missionary Department $103,784.16. Books have been sold in the several depositories amounting to $327,224.31. New York, Boston, Chicago and St. Louis have branch houses connected with this society, which are not only self-sustaining but also pay a small profit. In the year 29 new publications were issued, and 104, 020 copies of them were printed. Beside these new books, 204,000 copies of former publications were printed, which with tracts and periodicals, aggregate 589,589,446 pages. The Bible work of the society has been small. An effort is being made to organize a Bible Department in addition to the society's present work.

COMMUNICATIONS.

POSTAL GRIEVANCES.

ST. LOUIS, May 16, 1882.

Editor Publishers' Weekly:

I WAS at the point of addressing the Hon. the Secretary of the Treasury on a grievance similar to that which "Subscriber" ventilates in your number of May 13. Mine differed in these particulars: The mail importation was for a public institution, and as in no previous case an oath of entry was considered necessary, and no duty had ever been charged, it was thought all right. The invoice in question came stringing along—one portion being received one day and another the next, and so on. Finally came an order from the postmaster: "Please call at window of carriers' department and pay $2.50 for customs duties." Having no other order in London, and having received no intimation that a donation from abroad was on the way, I concluded that the shortest way to settle the matter was to pay the $2.50. I asked for a receipt to keep my cash account straight, and was told I couldn't have it. I opened one of the parcels and found it to be part of the same invoice that had been stringing along as aforesaid. I accordingly wrote a letter to New York and to the local surveyor of the port and called on the local postmaster's representative and got three distinct and different opinions on the case and felt satisfied. Now, Mr. Editor, let me put the great American query: What are we going to do about it? I feel gratified that I escaped the temptation of writing to the Hon. the Secretary of the Treasury.

"EQUANIMITY."

BUSINESS NOTES.

BETHLEHEM, PA.—H. T. Clauder has purchased the book, stationery and news business of W. H. Jackson, at No. 10 Third St., and will continue it in all its branches at the old stand in connection with his business at No. 146 Main St. Mr. Jackson will remain with Mr. Clauder for the present.

DENVER, COL.—The firm of Stone & Co., formerly composed of W. G. M. Stone entirely, engaged in the book and stationery business at 372 Larimer street, admitted May 1 E. A. V. Stone, the wife of W. G. M. Stone, as an equal partner in the business. The new firm will be known as the firm of Stone & Co., and will continue the business at the same place as heretofore.

NEWARK, OHIO.—G. B. Whiting has opened in this place a handsome book and stationery store. He will continue his old stand at Granville, O., as a branch to this Newark store.

MESSRS. HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & Co. make a graceful recognition of the esteem in which Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe is held, by tendering a garden party in honor of her birthday at "The Old Elms," the residence of Hon. William Claflin, at Newtonville, Mass., on Wednesday, June 14.

LITERARY AND TRADE NOTES.

PROF. SHELDON AMOS has in the press a volume entitled "The Science of Politics," which will be published in the International Scientific series as a companion volume to his well-known "Science of Law."

THE INTERNATIONAL NEWS CO. has received the first part of a handsome work on "Industrial Monographs," issued by M. Gerlach & Co., Vienna. The entire work will consist of 110 plates, comprising about 2500 illustrations, with text and an index.

THE AMERICAN GROCER PUBLISHING ASSOCIATION, N. Y., has issued an important volume entitled "Coffee: From Plantation to Cup," by Francis B. Thurber. It gives a history of coffee production and consumption, and statistics in regard to the berry in all its countries. The work is well illustrated.

SOULE & BUGBEE, Boston, have just issued a most interesting volume entitled "Impostors and Adventurers," edited by Horace W. Fuller, of the Suffolk bar. Eight of the most remarkable trials for imposture which have occurred in France from A.D. 1560 to 1775 are given from authentic data. The volume is put up in a neat and unique binding.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS will shortly publish a Popular Railroad edition, printed in quarto, with paper covers, and containing the 174 original illustrations of "Hood's Own Whims and Oddities." It is the publishers' judgment that the exquisite wit and humor of this classic author must meet with a popular appreciation when brought within the range of the popular purse.

MARTIN R. DENNIS & Co., Newark, N. J., have just issued the fifth edition of "Carmina Princetonia, a collection of students' songs of Princeton College," compiled for use of friends of the institution, and edited by D. L. Elmendorf, C. W. Parker, and E. H. Ernst. The last edition, published three years ago, is now out of print. The present issue will contain all the new students' songs as sung by the College Glee Club.

SCRIBNER & WELFORD have now ready the fifth edition of the late Dean Stanley's great work descriptive of the "Historical Memorials of Westminster Abbey," printed from the copy left by the dean at his death and containing his final corrections and additions. They have also Thomas Anderson's "History of Shorthand," a complete practical and historical review of the art and of its present condition and prospects in Europe and America.

THE BAXTER PUBLISHING CO., Philadelphia, have just ready a timely volume, entitled "Hints for the Summer Months," with directions "Where to go, the cost, and how to keep in health." They also announce a new and revised edition of the "Cyclopædia of American Literature, from the Earliest Date to the Present Time," edited by Evert A. Duyckinck and the late George L. Duyckinck. The revision of the work was completed by Mr. Laird Simons of Stoddard's Review.

THE QUEEN PUBLISHING CO., N. Y., will issue at once the "American Queen's Dictionary of Summer Resorts," a handy volume for parties contemplating summer tours. The volume will give a full description of every watering-place of any note in the country, with its hotels and prices; how to get there; the character of different mineral waters and the benefits to be derived from each, as chemically analyzed; the kind of game and fish abounding in various localities; excursion and picnic grounds and natural curiosities, etc.

THE summer days are on us at last, and so are the baseball matches. A lively rivalry exists between several "nines" of the book and stationery trade, and already several games have been played. The Baker, Pratt & Co. Baseball Club thus far take the lead. On May 20 they met the Appleton nine, on May 27 the J. Q. Preble nine, and on June 3 the William Cockcroft nine, in each case coming off victors. They are "slated" to meet a nine composed of the employes of C. T. Dillingham and Amasa Lyon on June 10, and on June 17 they will encounter the Dennison Manufacturing Company's nine.

ROBERTS BROTHERS propose to reproduce The Dial, page for page, without abridgment, and with the addition of an index to the whole work, containing a list of the contributions,* with names of the contributors, so far as it is possible to procure them; to which will be appended a full historical account of The Dial, with anecdotes, incidents, or gossip, that will in any manner illustrate the influence of a work which marks an era in American literature. The additional matter, paged separately, will be prepared by Rev. George Willis Cooke, author of "Ralph Waldo Emerson, his Life, Writings, and Philosophy." The work will be issued in four octavo volumes; the new index and additional matter will be bound separately for those who are already in possession of the original work.

GEORGE H. ELLIS, Boston, has in press for early publication, a book of short essays by Rev. Francis Tiffany, of West Newton, Mass. The book is entitled "Bird Bolts," a name suggested by Shakespeare's lines in Twelfth Night: "To be generous, guiltless, and of a free disposition, is to take things for bird-bolts that you deem cannon bullets." It consists of pithy, humorous, thoughtful papers on a great variety of subjects, such as "The Philosophy of the Kitten," "The Chinese Question," as viewed in the light of a suggestion derived from the way in which the Chinese at Canton adopted and applied the game of "leap-frog," "The Educated Fleas," "Routing Inertia," etc., and its bright and sensible character ought to make it a popular summer book. He has also under way, "Paul Dreifuss: His Holiday Abroad, What he Saw and What he Thought about it"—an anonymous book, describing the life and experience of a young woman artist in Paris, incidentally shedding no little light on the political crisis in France last winter, and giving very interesting views of men and affairs.

MACMILLAN & Co. have just published "Natural Religion," the work on which the author of "Ecce Homo" has been so long engaged.

THE Académie Française has awarded the prix Gobert of 9000 frs. (about $1800) to M. Cheruel for his "Histoire de France sous le Ministère de Mazarin."

W. & A. K. JOHNSTON, Edinburgh, have just issued the first part of "The Botanical Atlas, a guide to the practical study of plants, containing representatives of the leading forms of plant life," by D. M. Alpine. The work is to be completed in 13 monthly parts, and will contain about 52 handsomely colored plates, accompanied with text.

SAMPSON LOW & Co. have in press a new work on Central and West African exploration, entitled "From Benguela to the Territory of Yacca," by H. Capello and R. Ivens, of the Royal Portuguese Navy, who were the companions of Major Serpa Pinto at the outset of his adventurous journey through Africa in 1877-80. The work has been translated by Alfred Elwes, Ph.D., and it will be furnished with complete maps, portraits of the travellers, and copious illustrations, thus forming an important contribution to the physical and ethnological geography of the vast African Continent.

THREE new volumes of the publications of the English Index Society have been issued. They consist of an "Index of Obituary Notices for 1880," and Mr. Walter Rye's "Index of Norfolk Topography," which contains references to MS. as well as to printed sources of information connected with the county. These are for the year 1881. The third book, which is for 1882, is Mr. B. Daydon Jackson's "Literature of Vegetable Technology."

BUSINESS FOR SALE.

A BIG BARGAIN.

FOR SALE, the oldest-established and the best-advertised book-store in one of the largest cities in the U. S.; there are less book-stores in this city to-day than in any city in the U. S. One of the best-paying cash retail stores—more than twenty thousand dollars' worth of the best-selling stock in the store to-day; on the best corner in the city for trade. Have sold more than twenty thousand dollars' worth of goods yearly the last few years. There can be forty thousand dollars' worth sold by attending to it. The reason for selling, the owner is obliged to leave the city. This is a rare opportunity to embark in business with a well-established trade. Price, $10,000 (ten thousand dollars), cash. The finest opening in the city with a stationery stock in it. No old bills to pay; not a dollar of claims of any kind on the stock. This establishment has been better advertised than any book-house in the U. S. The good-will of the house should be worth $5000—it is offered for less than half what the stock is worth. Refer you to any of the largest book-houses East. Address "BOOKS," care PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY.

FOR SALE.—$2000 CASH will buy the stock and good-will of a paying business—a stock of sporting, hunting, fishing, comical pictures and photographs of all kinds—in one of the largest cities—the only store of the kind in the city, on the best street. Rent, $1500 a year; selling more than $600 monthly. Only reason for selling—cannot attend to it. Address "PICTURES," care PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY.

IN A CITY OF OVER 60,000 INHABITANTS, Book, Stationery, Blank-Book Manufacturing, and Printing Establishment, complete in every department, now doing a large and prosperous business. The only establishment of the kind in the county, which has a population of 200,000. This is a rare opportunity to engage in a staple business, and one that is seldom offered. Ill-health of the proprietor the only cause of sale. Address, with full references, "FORD," Box 943, N. Y.

BOOKS FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.

Summer

Catalogue.

A LITERARY COMPANION FOR THE SEASON.

PUBLISHED BY

[The remainder of this space is occupied by the retailer's imprint. For terms see advertising page.]

SEASON OF 1882.

TO RETAIL DEALERS:

The Summer Catalogue, issued now for five years, has been found so useful and profitable by enterprising dealers, that it has become a regular feature of the trade. The sixth issue, in a special pamphlet adapted for imprint circulation all through the summer, will be published in connection with THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, early in June.

The imprint editions will contain, in addition to a catalogue of guide-books and light literature for summer reading, an entirely new selection of reading matter both of a practical and entertaining character, chiefly intended for the use and amusement of tourists, pleasure-seekers, and visitors of summer resorts.

Booksellers should remember that, while summer is usually a dull time, the sales of light literature, etc., can be pushed to make a successful business even in this season. The classes who travel are of course those who have money to spend, even in dull times, and the summer is the time when very many bookbuyers do the greater part of their reading. Booksellers at or near summer resorts should therefore especially avail themselves of this publication, while city dealers should remember that it will be also useful to tempt stay-at-homes to make investments or to follow up customers otherwise out of reach.

Will Publish, Wednesday, June 14:

REMINISCENCES, CHIEFLY OF ORIEL COLLEGE, AND THE OXFORD MOVEMENT.

By T. MOZLEY, formerly Fellow of Oriel. 2 vols., crown 8vo, $3.

The Oxford Movement was not only one of the most important in the religious history of England, but so many famous men were conspicuous in it that it had a remarkable personal as well as historic interest. Newman, Pusey, Keble, and many other notable men figure in Mozley's engaging "Reminiscences," which are full of anecdotes and recollections that will be read with nearly as great zest in America as in England. Mr. Mozley was for years one of the leading writers on the London Times, and his book is crowded with interesting facts and glimpses of interesting people.

BRET HARTE'S WORKS. COMPLETE EDITION.

VOL. V. CONDENSED NOVELS AND STORIES. Crown 8vo, $2.

The first part of this volume contains condensed novels in the style of Dickens, Bulwer, Reade, Cooper, Lever, Dumas, Charlotte Brontë, Captain Marryat, Wilkie Collins, Victor Hugo, and other famous modern novelists. The last part comprises several short stories, including "Jeff Briggs' Love Story," which appears now for the first time in book-form in this country.

This volume completes the new library edition of Bret Harte's writings, which is as attractive in style as are the wonderful stories and poems it embraces.

POETS AND POETRY OF EUROPE.

Edited by HENRY WADSWORTH LONGFELLOW. New edition, revised. Royal 8vo. Price reduced to $5.

This sterling work, comprising translations of poems by more than four hundred writers of Continental Europe—Anglo-Saxon, Icelandic, Danish, Swedish, Dutch, German, French, Italian, Spanish, and Portuguese—was carefully revised by Mr. Longfellow during the last weeks of his life. It is now issued in more attractive style than heretofore, but at a reduced price.

SEASIDE STUDIES IN NATURAL HISTORY.

By ELIZABETH C. AGASSIZ and ALEXANDER AGASSIZ. New edition. Fully illustrated, 8vo, $3.

A new edition of this beautiful volume, which Prof. Dana of Yale College pronounced "an admirable companion for the seaside resident or tourist, especially for all who are capable of pleasure from looking at or studying the life of the sea."

PETER THE GREAT.

Two new volumes in Houghton, Mifflin & Co.'s excellent Biographical Series. They give in a popular and condensed form the leading facts in the remarkable and romantic career of Peter the Great. 2 vols., 18mo, $1.20.

LINGUISTIC ESSAYS.

By CARL ABEL. Vol. 30 in the "Philosophical Library." 8vo, gilt top.

A book of special value to all students of philology and of the many subjects on which light is thrown by philological research.
